

Logistics, made personal.

"To me, 'Logistics, made personal.' means truly listening, understanding every detail, and delivering solutions that feel as individual as the people behind them."

Clarissa Blank, MBS Logistics

At MBS, logistics isn't just about moving goods – it's about building relationships, earning trust, and delivering solutions that truly fit your requirements. For nearly 40 years, we've partnered with clients around the world to solve complex logistics challenges, keep supply chains flowing, and connect global markets.

But what sets us apart is how we do it.

We listen. We collaborate. And we design customised solutions that reflect your unique needs, goals, and industry realities. Every step of the way.

With access to a wide range of transport modes, specialist equipment, and deep sector expertise, we tailor solutions to even the most demanding supply chain needs. And we do it all while supporting local communities and reducing our environmental footprint.

We've built a culture that values connection, care, and collaboration: with our customers, our teams, our suppliers – simply put: our world.

Throughout this brochure, you'll discover what we stand for. Because at MBS, "Logistics, made personal." isn't just what we say. It's who we are.

Logistics, made personal.

At the heart of everything we do lies a simple yet profound belief: people come first.

Our logo and slogan reflect that belief, honouring everyone who makes our work possible: clients, colleagues, and partners.

For clients, it means personal service, fair practice, and clear pricing. For our team and partners, it's a culture of support, growth, and well-being.

Our leadership

Since our founding in 1987 in Siegburg, near Cologne, MBS has grown through strong leadership and close collaboration. Today, from our Cologne headquarters, our management team works hand in hand with teams across the globe to pursue one goal: advancing our customers' success.

We value flat hierarchies and agile thinking, creating a culture where everyone is empowered to lead, contribute, and grow.

At the helm are co-CEOs Joerg Roehl and Daniel Steckel, each bringing decades of freight forwarding expertise. By overseeing distinct areas of the business, they offer direct, personalised support to every department, ensuring service excellence and a spirit of accountability.

Our philosophy

"We lead by staying close. Close to our people, close to our customers, and close to the action. That's how we keep logistics personal."

Joerg Roehl & Daniel Steckel
Co-CEOs, MBS Logistics

"What drives me at MBS is knowing that we don't just transport cargo - we craft smart, reliable solutions that truly help our customers grow."

John Peter, MBS Logistics

ANYTIME

"At MBS, we use technology not to replace the human touch, but to strengthen it, so our customers always feel informed, supported, and in control."

Lisa Reschke, MBS Logistics

Logistics, made personal – powered by smart technology.

We combine human expertise with cutting-edge digital tools to give you full control over your shipment. Whether you need quick updates via our website or detailed insights through our in-house system, you're always in the know.

- Where is my shipment?
- Are any documents missing?
- When will the goods arrive?
- What information is needed for invoicing?

With multiple partners involved in every transport, real-time data access isn't just convenient, it's critical. We make sure everyone stays connected and informed, every step of the way.

Digital approach

At MBS Logistics, we believe sustainability isn't a trend, it's a responsibility. We're committed to reducing the environmental impact of global transport, both for our customers and within our own operations.

We actively collaborate with environmentally conscious carriers and offer greener logistics solutions tailored to your needs. At the same time, we're making meaningful changes in our own business: boosting energy efficiency across our facilities, embracing innovative technologies, and supporting climate action.

Our key areas of focus:

- Process efficiency
- Energy efficiency
- Innovation

Your environmental impact at a glance

The first step to decarbonisation is knowing your footprint. In partnership with Carboncare, we offer a free emissions calculator for every transport – helping you measure, understand and reduce your environmental impact.

Sustainable future

"For us at MBS, sustainability means taking action. Eevery day, in every detail - to move goods responsibly and protect what matters most."

Anita Baranowicz, MBS Logistics

"At MBS, we take pride in our shared commitment to contributing meaningfully to the communities we're part of."

Bernd Wilkes, Founding Partner of MBS Logistics.

Our communities.
Our people.
Our impact.

At MBS, we're united by more than logistics. We're driven by a distinct purpose: connecting people to improve lives. That purpose goes beyond business, extending into the communities where we live and work.

Whether we're supporting local initiatives or lending our expertise to global causes, our people step up to make a difference. From freight forwarders and digital minds to warehouse pros and business specialists, every team member plays a role in shaping a better future.

For better business.

At MBS, we believe that how we do business is just as important as what we do. That's why we operate with integrity: ethically, transparently, and in full compliance with the law. Our compliance policies are more than rules; they're a reflection of our values in action.

We proactively manage ethical risks through a robust compliance programme built on three core pillars:

- Continuous risk assessment
- A speak-up culture
- Partner and supplier integrity

Every employee plays a part. We empower our people to speak up if they witness misconduct, backed by a confidential whistleblowing system that offers anonymous reporting.

Because in the end, better business begins with doing the right thing.

Compliance

*"Doing the right thing
isn't just a policy at MBS
- it's part of our everyday mindset, because real trust starts from within."*
